

We must not jeopardize our future by undoing the past. The consolidation of ownership of the media is a danger to freedom of speech and especially to the intellectual development of our children. Corporate conglomerates such as GE have shown that the bottom-line of financial profit can and does lead to corruption. Do not corrupt our airwaves by giving away our safeguards.